RE: T-Mobile Central LLC, d/b/a T-Mobile (#8211) – 2008 Commercial Mobile Radio Service Providers Annual Report

Dear Mr. Evenson:

The Wisconsin Public Service Commission ("Commission") has requested that T-Mobile Central LLC, d/b/a T-Mobile ("T-Mobile") file a Commercial Mobile Radio Service ("CMRS") Providers Annual Report with the Commission by April 1, 2009.

Although T-Mobile has complied with Commission annual report and data filing requests over the past several years, we continue to assert the Commission has no authority to require the filing of a 2008 CMRS Providers Annual Report. T-Mobile objects to this request pursuant to W.S.A. Section 196.01(b)4, which expressly excludes CMRS providers from the definition of a "public utility;" and W.S.A. Sections 196.02 and 196.202, which limit the Commission's jurisdictional reach over CMRS providers from seeking such information.

Subject to and without waiving the reservations noted above, T-Mobile hereby submits its responses to the CMRS 2008 Annual Report as requested via T-Mobile Central LLC (#8211) along with the request for confidential treatment of intrastate revenue information provided in the report. T-Mobile is submitting this information via electronic filing in accordance with the procedures provided by Commission staff. Please note that T-Mobile is requesting confidential treatment of its intrastate revenues on the basis that the information is proprietary and a trade secret and protectable from disclosure. T-Mobile also notes that the Commission has previously granted T-Mobile's request for confidential treatment of such information in previous year's reports.

1. T-Mobile on behalf of its wholly owned subsidiary (the "Petitioner") are wireless telecommunication providers in Wisconsin and are filing a 2008 CMR Report.
2. I am a Senior Corporate Counsel for T-Mobile and in this capacity I have personal knowledge of all relevant matters pertaining to this Petition and I am authorized to make this affidavit on behalf of Petitioners.
3. T-Mobile is requesting confidential treatment for its filing of intrastate revenues of its 2008 CMR Report.
4. The intrastate revenues of T-Mobile are proprietary information that would aid competitors of T-Mobile.

5. This intrastate revenue information is protectible from disclosure pursuant to Wisconsin law §19.36(5) and §134.90.

6. T-Mobile considers its intrastate revenue as a trade secret protectible from public disclosure.

7. The intrastate revenues of T-Mobile in the State of Wisconsin are indicative of T-Mobile's market share and competitive position. Knowledge of T-Mobile's intrastate revenues by competitors provides to said competitors independent economic value. If this information was to become generally known or readily ascertainable to other entities with whom T-Mobile competes, this knowledge would provide considerable advantage for future competitive situations and planning.

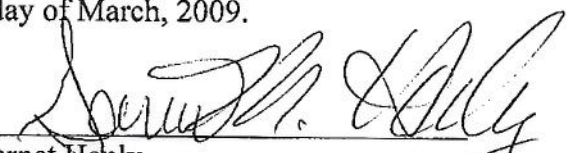

8. T-Mobile would be prejudiced and suffer competitive harm from public disclosure of its intrastate revenue data.

9. T-Mobile Wisconsin intrastate revenue is not generally known or readily ascertainable by T-Mobile's competitors who could obtain economic value from its disclosure or use.

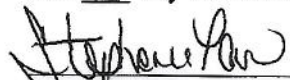

10. Gross revenue information is only provided to senior management and a restricted list of employees who have a particular need to know the state specific revenues. It is not disclosed to other employees of T-Mobile and is protected internally by T-Mobile as proprietary trade secret information.

11. The intrastate revenue of T-Mobile is information that would aid competitors of T-Mobile providing information as to market penetration and market growth and therefore is protectible from disclosure and information which comprise trade secrets protectible from public disclosure.
